A PUBLIC AGENCY'S RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE OPEN DOOR LAW The ODL When can I see a copy of the meeting agenda so I will know the order of proceedings?

A governing body of a public agency is not required to use an agenda, but if it chooses to utilize one, the governing body must post a copy of the agenda at the entrance to the location of the meeting or on the website at least one hour prior to the meeting. In addition, the public agency must describe each agenda item specifically, during a meeting and may not refer solely to an agenda item by number.
